A statement of commitment to the vitality of downtown Grand Rapids.

The Paul Goebel Group has strengthened its commitment to downtown Grand Rapids with a total renovation of its offices, as it celebrates its 45th year in residence at the Waters Building.

Meg Goebel, president and owner of the Paul Goebel Group said, “Over four decades at the Waters Building has established the company as an integral part of the business community. Our team members like working downtown, so after some consideration, the Paul Goebel Group management team has not only signed a long-term lease, but also extensively remodeled our entire offices, which look great.”

The Paul Goebel Group remodeled all of its office space on the 5th floor of the Waters Building at 161 Ottawa Ave in downtown Grand Rapids. The extensive renovations included redesigned conference room, offices, and team member meeting spaces.

As a premier association, commercial and personal insurance agency in the region providing comprehensive insurance solutions to approximately 50,000 lawyers, CPAs, engineers, and key business professionals throughout Michigan, Meg and the Paul Goebel Group management team felt it was important to make a statement of commitment to vitality of the downtown business district.
